Under date of March 26, 1964, the Seattle Office advised that George WILSON, alias GENE, had been located in Victoria, British Columbia, and on that date interviewed BILLY WILLIAMS, 3141 Cambie Street, VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, who stated he was a member of the Seattle Police Department on March 26, 1964. He also advised using a false name, and claimed he had been to Canada. There had no file on that name in the files of the Seattle Police Office. advised that the only reason WILLIAMS could give for making the statement was that he had been drinking at a bar in Victoria and had been drinking and decided to make the statement according to George WILSON, WILLIAMS "lives to dream". WILLIAMS' last employment was in connection with the construction of oil storage tanks.
